What people are saying about Lucy Cornell

Lucy Cornell has been a great resource for YPO during the past several Global Leadership Conferences. Having worked with several presentation coaches before, I can honestly say that Lucy's instruction was by far the most helpful. It was direct and specific while increasing my confidence that the message I was communicating was clearly stated.

Fulton Collins

I was a stuttering, bumbling mess and now I am king of the podium.

Lucy's techniques build confidence in the boardroom. I no longer have senior management telling me they can't hear me or that I need to be more authoritative.
